

BITS OF NEWS FROM ALL OVER

Washington.—Wm. Rockefeller will be examined by physicians for money trust committee, at Miami, Fla., when he returns from Bahamas.

Springfield.—Deadlock in legislature continued today. Adjourned until Monday.

Milwaukee.—Several hundred persons gathered at St. John's cathedral and prayed for souls of 80 persons who perished in fire which destroyed Newhall hotel here 30 years ago.

Mobile, Ala.—11 men killed, 16 injured when boiler on steamer Jas. T. Staples exploded on Tombigbee river.

Lansing, Mich.—Necessity of Sunday session of Michigan legislature in order to comply with law, was unique situation confronting both branches of legislature today.

Norfolk, Va.—British ship Alcazar reported to be in danger off Diamond Shoals Light Ship, North Carolina, today passed Capes en route to Norfolk under her own steam.

New York.—Cameron Spear, noted wireless promoter and former associate of late Col. C. C. Wilson, was today sentenced to 5 years in Atlanta pen, and fined $2,000.

Geneva.—Alpine boy who found the $25,000 diamond necklace lost by Baroness de Forest, today received $100 reward.

Berlin.—City is threatened with beer war.

Owatonna, Minn.—Harry Kruska, 9, shot and killed his brother, John, 12, with army rifle. Were playing war.

St. Paul.—Mrs. W. A. Moore, youngest of local police, arrested her first man last night for flirting with her.

New York.—Suffragist leaders here are trying to raise fund to finance their plans of a grand march on Washington next month.

Minneapolis.—One man killed, one injured, when caught between two freight trains.

Franzes, Minn.—Anton Geller, 95, died today. Had been expecting to die for last 15 years. In

MR. CRAPEHANGER

